Upon arrival at Adi Sumarmo Airport of Solo, our guide will meet you and transfer to hotel. Solo, also known as Surakarta, which is one of cities in Central Java. Surakarta is the heir of the Mataram Kingdom that was split into two kingdoms in 1755. "Surakarta" is used in formal and official contexts. The city has a similar name to the neighboring district of "Kartasura", where the previous capital of Mataram was located. The Dutch named "Soerakarta" influenced the Indonesian spelling "Soerakarta" in use before the 1948. (B)

DAY 2 : SOLO (4 hours)

Then visit Triwindhu Market which is selling artworks and antiques including ancient batik tools, assorted wooden masks, bronze and stone statues, wayang shadow puppets, kris daggers, paintings, antique lamps, ceramics, coins, vintage posters, interior ornaments and more. The market was built in 1939, when Indonesia was still occupied by the Dutch, to commemorate 24 years of the reign of Mangkunegara VII, king of Solo. Continue to visit Kasunanan and Dinar Hadi Batik Museum. Lunch will be served at Local Restaurant. Suku temple has a distinctive thematic reliefs from other candi where life before birth and sexual education are its main theme. Its main monument is a simple pyramid structure with reliefs and statues in front of it, including three tortoises with flattened shells and a male figure grasping his penis. A giant 1.82 m (6 ft) high of lingga (phallus) with four balls, representing penile incisions, was one of the statues that has been relocated to the National Museum of Indonesia. Then continue to visit Candi Cetho, is a fifteenth-century Javanese-Hindu temple that is located on the western slope of Mount Lawu (elev. 1495 m above sea level).

Cetho is one of several temples built on the northwest slopes of Mount Lawu in the fifteenth century. By this time, Javanese religion and art had diverged from Indian precepts that had been so influential on temples styles during the 8-10th century. This area was the last significant area of temple building in Java before the island's courts were converted to Islam in the 16th century. The temples' distinctiveness and the lack of records of Javanese ceremonies and beliefs of the era make it difficult for historians to interpret the significance of these antiquities. (1.5-2 hr drive from Solo to temples each way, depending on vehicle and traffic). Then drive to Jumoyo Waterfall. Lunch will be served at local restaurant. Return to Hotel. (B,L)

DAY 4 : SOLO – BOROBUDUR

"Discovered" in 1815, it has been excavated and returned to its original glory. The stone relief panels offer a clear glimpse into Buddhist doctrine and Javanese life 1,000 years ago. You'll have plenty of time to amble around and through this fabulous monument. Drive to check in at your hotel.(B)

DAY 5 : DIENG PLATEU

Breakfast at Hotel. You will be picked up at hotel, then visit Dieng Plateau. Dieng Plateau is a marshy plateau that forms the floor of a caldera complex on the Dieng Volcanic Complex near Wonosobo, Central Java, Indonesia. Referred to as "Dieng" by Indonesians, it sits at 2,000 metres (6,600 ft) above sea level, far from major population centres. The name "Dieng" comes from Di Hyang which means "Abode of the Gods". The Plateau is the location of eight small Hindu temples from the Kalingga Kingdom. It is unclear when they were built, estimated to range from mid 7th century to end of 8th century AD; they are the oldest known standing stone structures in Java. The temples are now believed to have been named after the heroes of the Hindu epic Mahabharata. The temples are small shrines built as monuments to the god-ancestors and dedicated to Shiva. In 2011, in a review published by Romain, the temple is now believed to be related to Dravida and Pallava style temples of South India. Then continue tour including visit the oldest temple complex Arjuna, the crater Si Kidang and the color lake and tea plantation at Tambi. Then drive back to Hotel for overnight.(B)
