BATAVIA OLD CITY

In 1619 Dutch destroyed city of Jakarta and established a new town called Batavia, the headquarter of Dutch East India Company, or "VOC" in Dutch language. VOC was the first established Limited Liability Company in the world.

Jakarta City Tour When Old meets New

There are plenty of Old buildings built in Dutch Colonial era which are still intake today and some of them are converted into museums, government buildings, and even Presidential Palace. Modern Jakarta, in the other hand, is no different to any other metropolitan cities, where famous brand outlets and restaurants are easily found in big and huge malls in Jakarta.

8Days

Jakarta Puncak Bandung

Your vacation in Jakarta is started when our nice & care professional tour guide greets you at Jakarta Airport to take you to your hotel for full rest after long hours of flight.

On the second day, you will enjoy seeing old part of Jakarta as well as the modern Jakarta. National Monument, which is the icon of Jakarta and symbol of Indonesian independence will be the first to see and after then Fatahillah Museum, used to be the city hall of Batavia, will give you a complete story of Jakarta history in one short visit. Next destination is Ancol Beach which has a lot of optional activities to enjoy until dinner time. (Dinner is provided)

On the third day, you momentarily have to say good bye to Jakarta to go to Puncak to visit Indonesia Safari Park which houses around 2500 animals including rare ones such as Komodo Dragons and White Tiger. On the way to your hotel, you will see and enjoy the the greenery of Tea Plantation before having dinner. (Dinner is provided)

On the forth day, after having good rest in a cool natural temperature at Puncak Hotel, you will visit the beautiful Nusantara Flowers Park. After lunch, you will have free session at your own time at Puncak. (Lunch is provided)

After enjoying two wonderful days in Puncak, it is now the perfect time to visit another fabulous city, Bandung.

Indonesia Safari Park has been around for 30 years and proven to be capable of making the animals from 5 continents with different habitate and culture living happily without problems.

Around the 16th century, Tea beverage was imported to Europe and quickly gained popularity which, in turn, made the Portuguese and the Dutch decide to establish large-scale tea plantations in their tropical colonies.

Puncak & it's BEAUTY

On your fifth day, after breakfast, you will pass through different side of the mountain to go to Bandung. Shortly after reaching the city, you will take photoshot at the famous Satay Building, which is another ex Dutch colonial building, and Asia Africa Building, the place where presidents from 31 nations in 1955 launched a new super power to balance the power of USA and Russia. After lunch, enjoy shopping at some best-value Bandung Factory Outlets. (Lunch is provided)

INDONESIA SAFARI PARK

NUSANTARA FLOWERS PARK

You will enjoy your sixth day in Bandung with your own free-leisure time, be it more shopping, strolling at Cihampelas street for "Jean Experience", or visiting more modern outlets in either Cihampelas Walk or Paris van Java mall. If you wish, you may take optional tours such as Tangkuban Perahu Crater or White Crater tour, Ciater Hot Spring tour, or Bamboo music performance.

Bandung is famous as Indonesia's Shopping City with it's abundance Factory Outlets all across the cities. You may find high quality clothings with bargain prices.

Fact about Bandung

- ✓ Dutch used to call the City as "Paris van Java" which means the city of Paris in Java Island.
- ✓ Bandung is the center of business and technology innovations with Bandung Institute of Teknologi as the center.
- ✓ Beside famous as Shopping Paradise, Bandung is also famous as Culinary Destination.
- ✓ Bandung is circled by at least 20 mountains which makes the city like a giant bowl.

BANDUNG SHOPPING PARADISE

It is now time to say "Asta La Vista" to your lovely city, Bandung, on your seventh day, and you will be on your way back to Jakarta. This time, you will see different part of the country, going to Jakarta by only toll road, including the one cutting the stoney mountain. After lunch in Jakarta, you will visit Grand Indonesia Shopping Center for high end shopping or ITC Mangga Dua for traditional bargainful shopping. To find unique goods from Indonesia such as Batik Shirts, Javanese Statues, Aromatic Scenes, or Indonesia handi-crafts, you may go to Sarinah Department Store. (Dinner is provided)

On your last day, the eight day, make sure you have packed everything you buy in Jakarta, Puncak, or Bandung along with your beautiful memory. Our humble tour guide will then transfer you to Jakarta International Airport and say "Bye bye and see you again".

Nyepi is a Balinese "Day of Silence" that is commemorated every new year according to the Balinese calendar. Nyepi is a day of silence, fasting and meditation for the Balinese where by all people including tourists respect

- ✓ Bali is the World's Best Island in 2009. It has nice beaches, amazing mountains, great lakes, and humble people.
- ✓ Bali can be quite "addictive" for a lot of people. After the first visit, they will come again and again.

- ✓ Bali has, from inspirational spirituality to fine dining and meeting experiences, from world class surfing and diving to exhilarating treks in the wild.
- ✓ Bali has some of the best infinity pools in the world such as in Munduk Moding Plantation, Ubud Hanging Garden, and Alila Uluwatu.

Uluwatu

Uluwatu Temple is definitely one of the top places on the island to go to for sunset delights, with direct views overlooking the beautiful Indian Ocean and daily Kecak dance performances.

Beratan

Ulun Danu Temple on Beratan lake is fascinating, surrounded by the frequently mist, added the mysterious atmosphere. It's like that temple floating on the lake.

If you think Bali is only beautiful on its water side, you are definitely wrong. Bali countryside is even more amazing! Lure yourself at paddy field beautiful terraces and feel the magical atmosphere there.

Enjoy beautiful scenery during your one hour flight to Bali as maximum as you can. Once reaching Bali, our balinese tour guide will greet you and take you to your hotel. Another smiley and humble guide indeed.

(Dinner is provided)

After getting enough rest, on the sixth day you will start exploring the magic of Bali starting from Taman Ayun Temple which is a royal temple of Mengwi Empire, followed by visit to Ulun Danu Temple which is beautifully located on Beratan Lake. After lunch, your tour guide will take you to Tanah Lot Temple which is located on the rock in the middle of the sea. Before having barbeque dinner at Jimbaran Beach, we will stop by at Gift Shop to buy some gifts for your loved ones. (Lunch and Dinner are provided)

SEAFOOD BARBEQUE AT JIMBARAN BEACH

On the seventh day, prepare yourself with extra clothes as you will enjoy watersports at Cape Benoa (all watersport fees are at your own expenses) and after getting tired of watersports, you will visit Garuda Wisnu Kencana cultural park with its giant statue. After lunch, the next stop is Uluwatu Temple which is nicely (and scarily) located on the high cliff followed by visit to Pandawa Beach, the new "hidden paradise" before having dinner. (Lunch and Dinner are provided)

On the eighth day, time is up in Bali, and you will be on your way back to Jakarta. After lunch in Jakarta, you will visit Grand Indonesia Shopping Center for high end shopping or ITC Mangga Dua for traditional bargainful shopping, or if you wish to find unique goods from Indonesia such as Batik Shirts, Javanese Statues, or Indonesia handicrafts, you may go to Sarinah Department Store. (Lunch is provided)

On your last day, make sure you pack everything you buy in Jakarta, Puncak, or Bali along with your beautiful memory with our guides in Jakarta-Puncak and Bali. It is indeed a sad time to say "Bye bye" but trust yourself as you will visit the beautiful Bali and Puncak again.

TEMPLES & WATERSPORTS

Bali is called "The Island of Gods", not only because of its temples which are ubiquitous, but also because a lot of people make Bali as their paradise to enjoy its amazing water sports including surfing, parasailing, rafting, and snorkeling.

PANDAWA BEACH

Concealed behind high cliffs and overgrown shrubbery, Pandawa beach had long remained secluded from the crowds of tourists, due to the less-than-easy path that had to be taken to access it.

It also has beautiful road to a hidden paradise which is a cut between rugged limestone cliffs that rise on either side.

TANAH LOT TEMPLE

The temple of Tanah Lot stands on a rocky island. One of Bali's most sacred sea temples, Tanah Lot is dedicated to the guardian spirits of the sea. The temple itself is said to be guarded from evil by the sea snakes that inhabit the caves below.

The temple is not accessible to visitors, but magnificent sunset views can be had from a variety of points nearby.

CAPE BENOA WATERSPORTS

There are various water sport activities in Cape Benoa. Banana Boat, Seawalker, Parasailing, Turtle Island tour, Scuba Diving, Snorkeling, Flying Fish, Rolling Donut, and Jet Ski ride are some of the examples.

Water sports at Cape Benoa start from 9AM to 2PM. After 2PM the seawater at Tanjung Benoa will be low and not suitable.

5Days UNFORGETTABLE BALI

Forget your professional life when you land at Denpasar International Airport, Bali, and switch your mind only for your personal life. Our Balinese tour guide will greet and take you to your hotel to start your vacation in Bali.

You will start your second day watching the world's famous Barong Dance in a very typical and traditional Balinese atmosphere, after then Traditional Balinese Villages to see Wooden and Silver Craft artisans before ending up the morning in Kintamani, a very beautiful natural scenery where we can enjoy the natural beauty of Bali, having Lunch there while enjoying the view of Mount Batur. After lunch you will visit Tirta Empul temple with its famous holy water before going back to Denpasar and having din-

Beside temples and beaches, Bali is also famous for its wooden, stones, silver, and gold crafts as well as paintings. It is quite unique as a lot of Balinese have artistry blood from generation to generation.

The third day will be a day of temples as you will see three beautiful temples starting from Taman Ayun Temple which is a royal temple of Mengwi Empire, followed by visit to Ulun Danu Temple which is beautifully located on Beratan Lake. After lunch, your tour guide will take you to Tanah Lot Temple which is located on the rock in the middle of the sea. Before having barbeque dinner at Jimbaran Beach, we will stop by at Gift Shop to buy some gifts for your loved ones. (Lunch and Dinner are provided)

On the fourth day, prepare yourself with extra clothes as you will enjoy watersports at Cape Benoa (all watersport fees are at your own expenses) and after getting tired of watersports, you will visit Garuda Wisnu Kencana cultural park with its giant statue. After lunch, the next stop is Uluwatu Temple which is nicely (and scarily) located on the high cliff followed by visit to Pandawa Beach, the new "hidden paradise" before having dinner. (Lunch and Dinner are provided)

On the fifth day, our tour guide will pick you from the hotel to go to the airport. Don't be sad this time as you will come to this magnificent island again.

Do you know that the world's most expensive coffee in the world comes from Bali? It is called Kopi Luwak and is not your typical coffee bean. They collect the beans from the digestion of a Civat Cat (Luwak in local language), as the Civat cat only eats the ripest and finest coffee cherries but doesn't digest the beans.

TIRTA EMPUL TEMPLE

Famous for its holy spring water, where Balinese Hindus go to for ritual purification. The temple pond has a spring which gives out fresh water regularly, which Balinese Hindus consider to be holy or amritha.

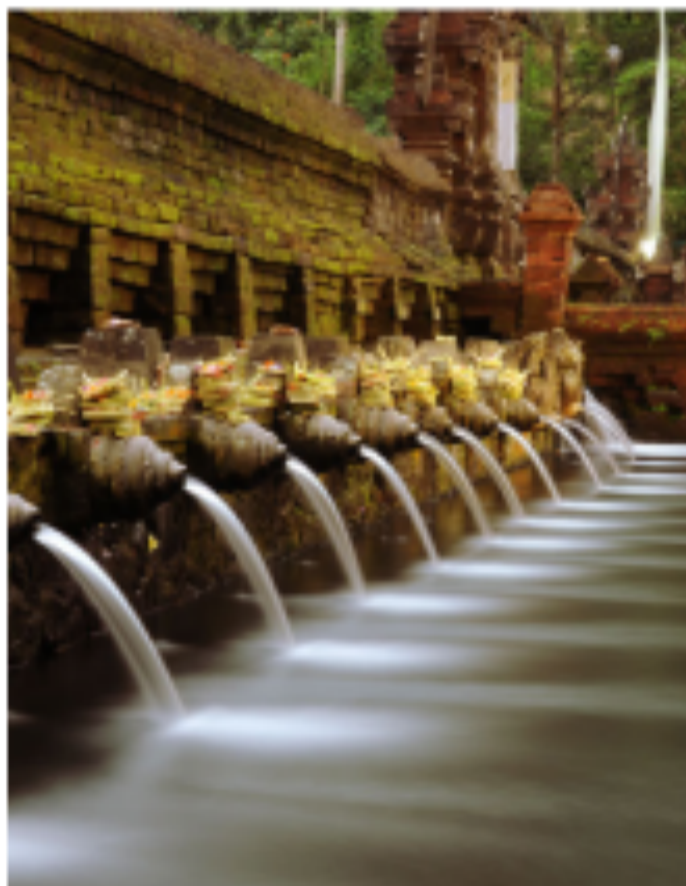

Balinese people have come to this temple for more than 1000 years to bathe in the holy water for healing and spiritual merit. A truly wonderful tradition and a feast to the eye.

BALI DANCES

Bali has a lot of world's known dances, and two of them are Barong and Kecak dances.

Barong is probably the most well known dance. It is also another story telling dance, narrating the fight between good and evil. This dance is the classic example of Balinese way of acting out mythology, resulting in myth and history being blended into one reality.

BALINESE ART

Not like any other cities in the world which have only one or two art markets, Bali in the contrary, has many. There are at least five markets which are mostly visited by tourists i.e. Ubud, Sukawati, Guwang, Kumbasari, and Kuta Art Markets.

There you will find a lot of Balinese artworks and handicrafts at bargain prices.

5Days Unforgettable Bali starts from US$ 445 per-person

All inclusive package for only US$ 445 per-person for minimum 2 people or US$ 425 per-person for minimum 5-people with the following details:
